1. Purpose

- 1.1. As members of the Charity, we have an obligation to act in the best interest of the Charity. Hence, we need to avoid situations where there may be real, potential or perceived conflicts of interest, which may arise where a member's personal or family interest conflicts with those of the Charity.
- 1.2. Such conflicts may create problems that may result in the following:
  - a. Cause damage to the Charity's reputation which may lead to its inability to sustain operations;
  - b. Influence the members' judgment and compromise objectivity when conducting the Charity's affairs;
  - c. Restrict free discussion, thus resulting in decisions or actions that are not in the interests of the Charity; and
  - d. Risk the impression that the Charity has acted improperly.
- 1.3. This Policy aims to protect both the Charity and its members from any appearance of impropriety.

2. Definitions

- 2.1. "Charity" refers to the charity named as the issuer of this document.
- 2.2. "Member" refers to a Management Committee member or management member or staff member or volunteer member of the charity.
- 2.3. "Policy" refers to the Conflict of Interest Policy.
- 2.4. "Interest" means any commitment, investment, relationship, obligation, or involvement, financial or otherwise that may influence a person's judgement. This would include:
  - a. Direct interest – ownership in the name of the member/staff;
  - b. Indirect interest – ownership beneficially held through another investment, estate, trust or other intermediary;
  - c. Vested interest – personal stake or involvement, which may or may not include an expectation of financial gain; and

- d. Deemed interest – a member/staff is deemed to have an interest which his/her spouse/domestic partner holds an interest
- 2.5. A conflict of interest arises when the personal interests of the member/staff may potentially interfere with the performance of his/her duties in the charity. When actual, potential or perceived conflict of interest arises, the integrity, fairness and accountability of the person may be affected, which could impede the best interest of the charity.

3. Declaration of Interests

3.1. Given the stated purpose of this Policy, we are asking:

- a. Management committee members to declare their interests, and any gifts or hospitality received in connection with their role in the Charity; and
- b. staff and volunteer members to declare when the transaction to be affected may result in a conflict of interest.

3.2. A declaration of interest's form is provided for this purpose. The types of interest to be declared will include, but not limited to the following:

- a. Members who have friends or other personal or business relationships must carefully consider whether those relationships create conflicts of interest with their entrusted role in the Charity. Examples include:
  - hiring a relative or friend as an employee or vendor,
  - buying or selling goods or services from / to a family business for which others might compete,
  - having a personal relationship where there is an immediate reporting relationship,
  - volunteering and/or having memberships in any other charities, or receiving goods/services as beneficiaries.
- b. Members must disclose any outside activities, financial interest or relationship that may pose a real, potential or perceived conflict of interest. Disclosures are to be made to the Management Committee

- 3.3. To be effective, the declaration of interests needs to be updated in written form at least annually and also when any changes occur.
- 3.4. In situations where members are not sure what to declare, or whether/when your declaration needs to be updated, they are strongly encouraged to err on the side of caution or seek advice from the management committee
- 3.5. All disclosure of interest made by members and decisions made by the management committee of the charity on such matters must be recorded, updated and filed.

Each individual shall disclose to the Charity any personal interest which he or she may have in any matter pending before the organisation and shall refrain from participation in any decision on such matter.
